

40 years ago the Deltic Preservation Society was formed with the ambition of saving one of these iconic locomotives for future generations to experience. In their heyday the “Deltics” were the most powerful diesel locomotives in Britain plying their trade on crack express trains like the “Flying Scotsman” and “Talisman” services.

40 years on the society own three of these locomotives and to celebrate this milestone Avocet Travel Management in association with the Deltic Preservation Society are pleased to announce the “DPS@40” Railtour, an afternoon/evening tour on Saturday 7th October 2017 taking a “Deltic” over the Southern routed as follows:

Terms and conditions

1. All seats are fully reserved and must be booked and paid for in advance.
2. Bookings made by telephone will be acknowledged verbally at the time of booking and an email confirmation will be sent. Together with a copy of our terms and conditions.
3. Payment for bookings made by credit or debit card will be taken in full using our secure payment gateway 4 weeks prior to departure. Transactions will be processed in pound sterling and will appear on your statement as 'Deltic Preservation Society'. A charge of 2.5% will be added to all credit card transactions. Cheques should be made payable to 'Deltic Preservation Society'.
4. Privacy Policy - We do not store credit card details
5. Boarding passes and confirmed travel information will be posted out at least 5 days before the departure date. Please pay particular attention to the departure and arrival times then notified as these may vary from the projected times shown in any advertising.
6. Every effort will be made to ensure that the advertised routing, locomotive(s), coaching stock, timings and other particulars will be as published. Please note that the Deltic Preservation Society ('the Company') reserves the right to alter these at any time due to circumstances outside the Company's control and as a consequence shall not incur any liability for any such alterations to any person who has bought, or contracted to buy, a boarding pass or passes, as a result of any such changes.
7. The Company shall have no liability for information provided by agents and third parties claiming to act on its behalf unless such information has been confirmed in writing by the Company.
8. The Company shall incur no liability for delays, curtailment, alterations, mishaps or other events that may arise on the day of operation as a result of circumstances outside the Company's control. In the event of curtailment of the rail operation, the Company will take every reasonable step to return customers to their joining stations, possibly using alternative means of transport.
9. If an excursion is cancelled by the Company a full refund will be made, but no other liability shall be incurred.
10. The locomotive allocated to this train may vary and no guarantee can be given as to the availability of any individual locomotive. Should the designated locomotive be declared unfit to commence or continue the outward service, it may become necessary to substitute another locomotive. No other liability shall be incurred.
11. Any issues arising during the excursion should be raised straight away with your carriage steward so that the matter can be rectified. If the matter is not resolved to your satisfaction a complaint form must be requested from your carriage steward and sent to the Deltic Preservation Society within two weeks of the excursion date.
12. It is your responsibility to ensure that you and the members of your group do not behave in a way which is inappropriate or causes danger, distress, offence or damage to others or which risks damage to property belonging to others (including but not limited to drunkenness) whilst on your trip. If, in our reasonable opinion or that of our suppliers, your behavior is inappropriate and causes danger, distress, offence, or damage to others, or risks damage to property belonging to others, we and/or our suppliers may take appropriate action in order to ensure the safety and comfort of our customers and their property and that of our suppliers, including terminating your trip, in which case our and our supplier's responsibility to you will cease immediately and you will not be eligible for any refunds, payments of compensation and/or any reimbursement of any cost or expenses you may incur as a result of such termination. Further, you will be liable to reimburse us for any expenses we incur necessarily as a result of such termination
13. We cannot be held responsible for any disruption to your trip due to bad or unusual weather conditions.
14. These booking conditions and any agreement to which they apply are governed in all respects by English law. We both agree that any dispute, claim or other matter which arises between us out of or in connection with your contract or booking will be dealt with by the Courts of England and Wales only. You may however, choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you live in those places and if you wish to do so.
15. Any change made after a booking has been made and confirmed may attract an alteration fee of £10.
16. We ask that any cancellations are made in writing by email or post to avoid any mis-understanding.
17. Travel and cancellation insurance is highly recommended for full protection and peace of mind.
18. Refund requests will be considered in accordance with the following scale for day excursions, expressed as a percentage of the total value of the booking: over 28 days before the date of running - 90%, between 14 and 28 days before the date of running - 75%, between 5 and 13 days before the date of running - 50%, within 5 days of the date of running - nil.
